14.14	Defining the provision for eligibility of appearing in Special Examination.	In the special examination conducted by the University, it has been observed that along with the students of passing out batch the other succeeding session students are also appearing. This creates delay in scheduling of special examination. Since the special exam is specific arrangement to enable the students to join their placement companies or institutions for higher studies, hence the benefit cannot be generalized and in particular it should not adversely affect the beneficiary at the center for whom the policy is framed. Therefore it is proposed that in special examination of a particular AY only the students passing out in that academic year i.e. final year students and the students of preceding AY may be allowed to participate.	Approved. Archit
14.15	Compliance of the direction of the Apex Examination committee, dated 07/04/2022.
